HAYES AT ATLANTA

Ten Thousard Georgians Greet Him in the Streets.

A WARM CIVIC WELCOME.

The President Repeats His Little Greek Story.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 22, 1877. The Presidential party arrived here at half-past seven o'clock this morning, and made their headparters at the Markham House. After breakfast the party were driven over the city. At ten o'dlock, on a stand in front of the Markham House, in the presence of 10,000 people, Mayor Angier welcomed the President for the city of Atlanta and Governor Colquitt for the people of the State of Georgia in the following the people of the State of Georgia in the following words:—

Mr. Prissipsky—In behalf of the people of Georgia I bid you and your companions, the gentlemen and ladies pressent of the people of Georgia I bid you and your companions, the gentlemen and ladies pressent of the people of Georgia I bid you and your companions. The gentlemen and ladies pressent gentlemen and the pressent of the latter of the superior of the latter of the la

PRESIDENT MAYES' ADDRESS. President Hayes was next introduced and greeted with great cheering. He said :-

With great cheering. He said:

Freight that, by reason of a slight cold taken a day or two ago in a rain storm in East Tennessee, my voice is not in a condition to be heard in the first few sentences of my address by any considerable portion of this vast audience, but if you will bear with heard. The day before yesterday, at Chattanooza, I met a committee of your citizens who desired me and arged me to extend, with the party accompanying me, our trip to four beautiful and prosperous city. We were all very denrous to accept that invitation. We fest that, extended as it was, it was, it was a very great pions to us. Individually we felt that it would be a very great pleasure to most you at your homes, but our arrangements shead had been made, and I supposed it was out of the question to extend the trip. Happily our railroad friends assured us that by riding all hat night and all of to-night we should be able to visit Atlanta, and at once those who were the healthier and stronger of the party, urged by those of the other sex, consented to some, and now we are here.

I wish to say in a single sentence we are glad to be here. (Applause) The very eloquent address to which we have listened, and especially the very enouraging attacements we have heard from the Governor of Georgia, are surely of themselves—greeted as they have been and indersed by the appliance of this great audience—they are listened, the mental trip is great audience—they are of themselves—greeted as they have been and indersed by the appliance of this great audience—they are they for the mestives—greeted as they have been and indersed by the appliance of the preserved and they are they are selves so great a gratification that I would not on any account have missed the pleasure I have lest this morning. (Cheers.)

I suppose that here, as everywhere else, I am in the presence of men of both great political parties; I am speaking also in the presence of citizens of both caces. I am quite sure there are before me very many of the brave men who fought in the Confederate army— (applause)—some, doubtiess, of the men who fought in the Union army—(applause)—some, doubtiess, of the men who fought in the Union army—(applause)—some, doubtiess, of the men who fought in the Union army—(applause)—some, doubtiess, of the men we are, appublicans, democrats, coored people, white people, Confederate voiders and Union souliers, allo one mind and one heart to day. (In menuse cheeting)—A menuse cheeting, A menuse of the menuse cheeting, a longer of without any fault of pours, and of mine, or of any one of this great andlenes, slavery existed in this country. It was in the constitution of the country. The colored man was here, not by his own woluntary action. It was the minfortune of his fathers that he was here. I think it is safe to say that it was by the crime of our fathers that he was here and the subject of the confederate in the constitution of their opinions, and both suces finally undertow to settle the question by that last final means of arbitration—force of arms. You here mainly joined the Confederate slide and fought bravely, risked your lives heroically in behalf of your convictions.

And can any true man anywhere fail to respect the man who risks his life for his convictions? (Frolonged cheers)
And as I accord that respect to you and believe you to be equally liberal and generous and just, I feel hat, as I stand before you as one who fought in the Union army for his convictions I am entitled by your respect (cheers) now that the conflict is over. My friend Jovernor Hampton repeated to you has hight the way in which I have been in the habit of putting it since I came to the South. There was a larger proportion of trainest
stokes. There was a larger proportion where you were mod marsamen and good horsenen, and that is two-thirds of a good swider. (Laughter.) But creaming we learned to ride, too—daughter)—and, as some of you know, gradually learned to shoot. (Rhenewed laughter).

I happen to know how well you could shoot, (Cheers.)
Well, having learned how to ride and shoot, it was a case of il. hiting between tireeks and direck. "When tireck meets Greek," you know what the conflict is. (Cheers.) And, mate. The traity on know weakly how it will termin has the most Greek, (Laughter and cheers.) Something of according to you and a special credit to us, the war turned out as it did (Cheers.) Now, shall we quit ighting? (Cries of "Yes, yes.") I have been in the habit of teiling an anecdote about General scott, and a stateman at washington, in which the statesman said that as soon as the war was

More. Offest chee a:

I shall not farget this reception and this greeting, every good purpose I have will be strengthened by what I have seen and heard to-day. I thank you for the help it will give me hereafter during my term of office. I bid you good morning. (Cheers.)

Secretary Everts and Postmaster General Key made similar addresses as elsewhere. The bunquet was a grand success, speeches were made by Mesars, Hayes, Evarts, Rey, Bes Hall and Gordon.

lady among his prime donne.

Miss Emma Thursby, Fritsch and S. B. Mills opened the Lyceum Hall, at Morristown, N. J., on Friday. A large and fashionable audience attended. Aimée and toupe have drawn unusually fine audiences during the wook. They appear this week in "La Boulangere a des Ecus" (the rich bakeress).

This is the last week of the Lydia Thompson troupe at Wallack's and will be occupied by "Robinson Crusoc." On Friday night Miss Thompson will take a benefit. "Struck Oil" steadily gains in favor at the Union Square Theatre, and in the third act especially Mr. J. C. Williamson makes a deep impression by mingled comedy and pathos. Mrs. M. E. Calhoun, well known as a brilliant writer, will lecture this season in the Western cities on "Jewels," "A Carburetted Hydrogen Ghost" and Wooing as a Fine Art." Mr. Dion Boucleault's new five-act drama, entitled "Marriage," will begin the twenty-sixth regular season at Wallack's Theatre on October 1. Much interest is, of course, taken in the event. The San Francisco Minstrels present an entirely new programme this week, which is even more funny than that which proceeded it. Wambold, Birch and Backus are in the element where frolic abounds.

Mr. John A. Mackey, a young actor from the West, has been playing Conn in the "Shaughraun" in New England with decided success His acting in this rôle is considered one of the best "hits" of the season. Miss Clara Morris will make her first appearance this season at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, to-morrow evening, in her celebrated character of Miss Multon. The engagement is for one week only, and Mess Morris will be warmly welcomed.

At the Public Exhibition concerts in Philadelphia, four miles from Broad street, the price is twenty-five cents, and the place is thronged. There is a lesson in the fact for some of our managers. The people once Managers are complaining, and not without truth, that artists are demanding more than they deserve. Three or four hundred dollars a night for a song or two is a financial monstrosity. This is the chief cause of operatic and concert fallure.

"That W:fe of Mine" is the suggestive title of a new three act comedy in which Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Flor-ence will appear for the first time this week. Mrs. Florence plays Anastasia Bulifinch, a strong-minded woman, and Mr. Florence Harry Granville.

Helena Modjeska, Countess Bozenta, a Russian ac tress of celebrity, who has studied the English language, recently made a very successful appearance as Adrienne Lecoureur at the California Theatre. She will soon appear in New York under the management of Mr. H. J. Sargent. Bryant, at his new place opposite the New York

Hotel, is commanding the attention of the lovers of troisy, and with his excellent troupe is making one of the best entertainments in the metropolis. An excellent corps every night contributes to the Balle's early music is again attracting English audiences. Miss Emma Beasly has recently made a point in one of his forty year old pieces entitled "The Siege of Rochelle." She is described as a soprano, naire and graceful, who pronounces distinctly phrases with taste and always sings in tune.

Mr. Robert Heller, the prestidigitateur, plaulst and humorist, and his sister, Miss Heller, arrived yesterday per steamer Britannic. They will open in Boston, at Horticultural Hall, on October 1. The r regular season in New York will begin at the old Fifth Avenue Theatre, Twenty-lourth street, in the beginning of December. Mr. R. D'Orsay will commence his season at Charles ton, S. C., October 1. His circuit includes Columbia, S. C ; Savannah, Augusta, Americus and Macon, Ga.; Montgomery and Mobile, Ala.; New Orleans, La.,

and Galveston, Texas. His first star will be Mr. D.

H. Harkins, and he will be followed by Miss Rose

Eytinge. The Fryer troupe will open their season in Philadelphia on Monday, October 8, with "Les Huguenots." Pappenheim will sing as Valentine and Charles Adams as Raoul. The company will play in Ballimore for a couple of weeks, commencing on the 15th of October, and then move on to Cincinnatt, Chicago, Memphis, St. Louis, New Orleans, San Francisco and so on, giving to New York its final experience sometime in the spring.

In response to a general request Mr. Sothern will give a matinée on Wednesday afternoon, September 26, in order to enable those whose professional engagements will not prevent them to see the "Crushed Tragedian" at other times. This will be especially good news to actors and actresses, of whom a large number have expressed a desire to see one of their fraternity at his worst. Fitzaltament is likely to make them miserable. The audiences during the week have been large, and at times seats commanded a premium.

At Gilmore's Garden to-night the New Yorker Sang erbund, composed of seventy-five voices, will ring in grand opera chorus. The programme of the evening is attractive. To-morrow night Signor Tagliapetra will appear, and on Tuesday a grand telephone concert will be given, in which the participants will be Mr. Arbuckle, Mr. Carleton and Miss Reber. These artists will perform in the Exhibition building, in Philadelphia, and it is expected that they will be heard in the Garden here through Edson's new musical telephone The fall horticultural exhibition will open on Wednesday and be continued during the week, afternoons and evenings, in conjunction with the concerts by

THE FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE.

"What degree of accuracy," said a representative of the HERALD to Mr Gilsey last evening, "Is there in the reports that the Fifth Avenue Theatre has been leased by Mr. Stephen Fiske and will be opened under his direction early in October?" "The announcements made to that effect in some of the papers," Mr. Gilsey replied, "are premature. Negotiations are pending, but nothing has yet been decided. In a day or two the public will be fully informed, and in the meantime the theatre is undergoing important changes, which will add to the convenience of the interior."

CONDITION OF G. L. FOX.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 22, 1877. George L. Fox, the comedian, is at the house of his sister, Mrs. G. C. Howard, in Cambridge. His situation has not materially changed for some time and no may survive for several months. The widow of one of his brothers has been sent for to all in taking care of him. He has a good appetite, though paralysis has made sad work with him. He has the best of care.

SAN FRANCISCO'S PROBLEM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept . 22, 1877. rorkingmen was held at Union Hall last night. The speeches were of the most incendiary character. The eakers bitterly inveighed against the Chinese, and proposed that the workingmen should organize, arm and put themselves in position to enforce their de-mands for the exclusion of the Chinese from the coun-try, despite the menaces of the Committee of Safety, the police and the militia. An open air mass meeting was called for Sunday, the 23d inst., and it is pro-posed to have a street parade of unemployed working-men at an early date.

OBSEQUIES OF SENATOR BOGY.

St. Louis, Sept. 22, 1877. The funeral of Senator Bogy took place to-day, and was attended by a very large number of old and most prominent citizens of the city. The ceremonies were performed at St. Laurence O'Foole's Church, Father Hayes being the celebrant. Father Fallen delivered the luneral discourse. All the city offices were closed, and the Mayor and many citizens, officials and the members of the Bar Association attended the funeral.

FUNERAL OF JOHN E. WILLIAMS.

The funeral of John Earle Williams of the Metropolitan National Bank, took place yesterday afternoon Irvington, where the deceased was well known and greatly respected; and from New York city were in attendance representatives from every national bank; also the trustees of the Children's Aid Society, the governors of the New York Hospital and the directors of the New York Poor Society. The Chamber of Commerce was represented by its President, Samuel D. Babcock. The funeral service was very simple. It was conducted by Rev. Dr. Beilows, who delivered a short enlogy on the character of the deceased. He said the life of Mr. Williams had been a useful, happy and tenerous life, and it was seldem that one met with a person so singularly endowed with qualifications for good. He was attached to life in this world, for he had made and proved it a world of happiness by using and not abusing it. He had not waited to go to heaven, but had brought heaven down to earth by living for heavenly objects.

The body was taken to the Tarrytown Cemetery for interment. every national bank; also the trustees of the Chil-

MISCELLANEOUS.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS for fifty years have been, and continue to be, used by militons of families. As a vegetable cleansing medicine they have no equal for efficacy. The liver and all the o-gans of the body are made healthy by their use, because they purify the blood, from which all organs are renewed. Poisons, whether from food, physic or from breathing an impure air, are removed from the howels and the circulation by BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

For over one hundred and fifty years this medicine has stood the test, and its sale has constantly increased, because they are good for all, the rich and poor, the old and young; in fact for both male and female, and for all ages. They cannot hurt, and when ased reduce the sum of impurities in the human body.

The writer has used them for the last fitty years, and in no case have they failed to restore his health. From his own personal experience of their wonderful effects, he recommends them in Liver Affections, Dizziness, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Lumbago, Stone in the Gall Biadder, for all acute pains; as a remedy and cure for Contiveness, Dyspepsia, Fevers of all kinds, Dysentery, Diarrhea, and all trouble of the bowels, which these Pills cure by removing the irritating cause; and in Skin Dis cases their effects are marvellous as curatives. When the body and the mind, and the human system appears to become harmonious, and the work seems to be half done after the first dose. .

Their use is most especially needed when oatward applications are applied, whose effect may be to bring from organs morbid matters into the circulation, and which may cause serious trouble, by settling upon some vital part, if not removed out of the body. Brandreth's Pills do this, and so prevent danger, and usually restore to health.

DIABRHEA RUNNING INTO DYSENTERY CURED. A distinguished captain of a large mail steamship suffered severely from Diarrhoea. He was of full habit and the dectors, men of science and experience, dare not give setringents or anodynes, for fear of congestion of the brain. Besides the two ship doctors there was among the passengers also an M. D., who, having learned that the two medical men had little hope of the captain's recovery, cosired that he might be permitted to see him. This medical man, after some inquiry, recommended sight of BRANDRETH'S PILLS, and to be repeated if found needful. After some explanation of their effects the captain followed the advice, and in three days recovered his usual health, All he took was three doses of Brandreth's Pills, say 24 pills in all, and barley water without limit. This occurred in 1869, since tensively. He has the command of one of the largest and finest steamers in the world. The name is at the Principal

A gentleman of full habit and on the shady side of sixty found himself suddenly dizzy and hardly able to recollect himself. For months he had been remarkably well, and felt some days before this attack that it would be wise to take a dose or two of for he had been acquainted with the medicine for fifty years. By the time he reacted his bedroom recollection was nearly gone, but he called for the pills, of which he took six; in about three hours he took six more; soon they began to operate, and he was somewhat easier, but the dizziness was bad lying down on either side or sitting or standing up. Nevertheless, the next day he was much better; still he was not over the dizziness, and a peculiar uncertainty of step, which tooked much like symptoms of paralysis, so the second night he took six Brandreth's Pills and barley water was continued. Third day still better, yet some uncertainty of step still remained and a swimming of the head when lying on left side, so on that night patient took seven Brandreth's Pills. These with a plentiful supply of bariey water had an excellent effect on she bowels, and all uncertainty of step and dizziness were removed. This gentleman, three months after, assured the writer he had enjoyed perfect health since this attack, now three months ago, and had not taken a pill or a particle of medicine in that time. In all cases of divergement from health, whether in the old, young or middle aged, let Brandteth's Pills be taken and mild diet, as barley water, gruel or broth of mutten, or chicken, and the results will be beyond question satisfactory. Brandreth's Pills seem to be the one thing needful, when we are sick, that is called for by the constitution, to restore health. A gentleman suffering severely from gout was told that BRANDRETH'S PILLS would cure. He was astonished, for he was sure be whe told bim, beyond donbt, believed himself the words he uttered. Without much faith the pills were used; in fact, instead of seven recommended, eleven were taken the first night. The pain was nearly all gone the next day, and after taking the pills three days the gout was cured. The writer saw this gentleman on Sunday last, September 16, and a finer specimen of health he has never beheld; he said, "I understand the action of BRANDREIN's PILLS they simply take hold and expel what is hurtful in a human body, while they are themselves innocen'." May they be patronized by the good, and may the wicked let them alone. Sold everywhere by medicine dealers. Observe-B. BRANDRETH, in white letters on the United States gov ernment stamp, and same guarantee on English govern mont stamp. Principal office.
